Swat That Fly To Fight Dreaded Polio, Is Advice Of M.O.H.

By DR. J. H. WESLEY, M.O.H.

While there have been a few cases of poliomyelitis scattered across the Dominion during the last three years, there has been no epidemic, and it is on this account health authorities are preparing to cope with a larger number of cases than usual this year.

A bulletin issued by the deputy minister of health for the province states that the mild or abortive case is much more common than the kind with paralysis, being about 39 to one, and that there are at least 29 paralyzed cases for every fatal one.

Though the causative micro-organism of this disease has been studied much of late, there appears to be no means known for its prevention, yet much has been learned about its cause. The organism has been found in healthy individuals who may have been in contact with the disease or those who may not have been. It has been found in the common house fly and mice in infected houses. The present state of our knowledge of the disease would go to show that the most likely means of its spread is from contact with another case or possibly a healthy human contact.

The department of health has arranged to defray the cost of hospitalization of all cases of polio at any one of a list of approved hospitals, arrangements having been previously made by the local medical health officer for the transfer.

The regulations for the prevention of most other communicable diseases apply in polio:

- (1) The house is to be placarded.
- (2) The patient is to be isolated for three weeks from the commencement of the attack.

LESS RESPECT FOR REDUCING DEBT, ADVISED

Mosquitoes and rats and smoke from the Queen St. dump were discussed at a Newmarket town council meeting on Monday evening.

Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales presided. Dr. J. H. Wesley, M.O.H., was present.

"I think the citizens are entitled to make a terrific squawk on oil to keep down the mosquitoes. He thought it would cost Newmarket $500 to get rid of the mosquitoes," Mr. Mathews thought that it would be money well spent on health.

"You have to have a very fine mesh screen or netting to keep out mosquitoes," said Dr. Wesley.

Councillor Wm. Dixon said that it would cost $1,000 to start in the spring and put oil in the ponds and creeks. Dr. Dales thought it would be worth it.

The council passed a motion authorizing the medical health officer to carry on a vigorous campaign to eliminate as far as possible.

Arena Offered To Town, Councillors Would Accept

A letter from Andrew J. Davis, president of Newmarket Arena Ltd., read at a town council meeting on Monday evening, offered to sell the arena to the town.

The council passed a resolution expressing a desire to purchase the property and the mayor named as a committee Councillors J. L. Spillette, Frank Bowser and A. V. Higginson, Reeve F. A. Lundy and himself.

"Several months ago I mentioned informally to Mayor Dales that I thought the arena directors would make a very reasonable deal with the town to take over the arena and I believe he brought the matter before the council but we have heard nothing further about it."

"We are writing you now to advise that the directors went into this arena business over 20 years ago to provide amusement, exercise and entertainment for our young people, and feel they have carried the load long enough. Nearly half of the original directors have passed on, and those of us who are left feel the town should take this proposition over and run it for the good of the rising generation."

"There have been no dividends paid for over ten years now, and we do not expect to get our money back but would be willing to sell for between 50 and 60 cents on the dollar."

"We have just spent $2,300 in putting on a new roof, and the building generally is in first-class shape."

"We felt it was only fair to advise you in good time that the present directors had decided that they will not operate the arena this winter, but that if the town desires to take the deal on, we will be very glad to discuss the matter with you."

- (1) Purchasing the arena as a community rink.
- (2) Construction of a modern swimming-pool.

Capt. Patterson's Bravery Saved Lives In Normandy

The minister of national defence (army) has announced the award of the Military Cross to Capt. John Aubrey Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Patterson, Newmarket, for heroism at St. Aubin sur Mer on June 6.

Capt. Patterson is a licensed physician. He was born at Newmarket on May 28, 1913, and attended Newmarket schools. He was a member of the Canadian officers' training corps, Queen's York Rangers, at the University of Toronto, and joined the Canadian active army with the rank of lieutenant on May 6, 1942. He proceeded overseas on Jan. 15, 1943, and attained his captaincy on May 1, 1943. His wife, Margaret Patterson, resides at Newmarket.

The citation follows: "This officer, the regimental medical officer, landed with the battalion headquarters and the reserve companies of the battalion at St. Aubin sur Mer on June 6, 1944. His work on the beach under fire was exemplary. As long as the regimental stretcher-bearers were available to 'nest' or carry cases, he went from 'nest' to 'nest' administering all the aid within his resources in a cool and capable manner without any apparent regard for the shelling, mortar and small arms fire falling around him."

Col. Young's Son Dies Of Normandy Wounds

Lieut.-Col. N. M. Young, commanding officer of No. 23 basic training centre, Newmarket, received word yesterday that his only son, Sgt. Peter Young, was wounded in Normandy on Aug. 8, and today he received further word that he had died.

COUNCILLORS PAY TRIBUTE TO WAR DEAD

The mayor and town council paid their respects to Newmarket's dead in this war in a brief remembrance service at the town flagstaff Saturday afternoon.

Emphasizing that the town officers had gathered to pay tribute "on their own behalf," Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales read the names of 13 men who have been reported killed in action and observed a minute's silence in their memory.

A guard of honor from No. 23, commanded by Lieut. Fred White, was drawn up in front of the flag-pole. As the bugler sounded Last Post, the guard presented arms and the flag was broken and lowered to half-mast.

Opening the service, Mayor Dales said: "For a long time, your mayor and council have desired to express officially on our own behalf in a public manner the respect and gratitude we owe to those who have given all for king and country. There is no special recognition for any one, as all are equal in their great sacrifice."

"From time to time we wish to hold such a service if it pleases the people of the town. If it meets the approval of those intimately concerned we shall be glad and very proud."

"In grateful remembrance I am going to read the honor roll to date. If any names are missing, please bear with us, as we have tried our best to make our record complete. The names on the honor roll are: Ivan Atkins, missing, presumed dead, Gerald Blight, Ross Cook, Arthur Duffield, George Germain, Gert Larsen, Gordon Morrill, Philip Morgan, John O'Connor, William Pipher, Jack Revell, Howard Sutton, Howard Woodcock. "Greater honor hath no man than this: that a man lay down his life for his friend or his country."

After one minute of silence had been observed, Capt. the Rev. W. D. Muckle spoke: "In paying tribute to those who have died in their country's service, we must not forget their families and the price they must pay."

Declaring that there should be more respect paid the veterans of the last war and this, Capt. Muckle offered to subscribe $50 towards the compilation of a memory book in which the names of Newmarket's servicemen could be inscribed together with their pictures and history. "Copies of such a memory book could be placed in each of the public schools and in the library so that the children would know of the extent of the sacrifice made by these men," he said.

In referring to Capt. Muckle's "generous offer of financial assistance" in compiling a record of local veterans in this and the last war, Dr. Dales expressed himself as strongly in favor of such a booklet which, he said, will give "due honor to our local volunteers, men and women, for their parts nobly played. Also I know we shall desire when the days of war are over a general remembrance service for the whole town."

Rev. Henry Cotton led the gathering in prayer, following which Last Post was sounded and the flag lowered to half-mast. The Revellie ended the service.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Larsen; Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Connor; Mrs. Joel Woodcock; Herman Gilroy, Lions club president; James S. Law, Dixon Pencil Co.; Aubrey Davis, Davis Leather Co.; W. A. Spear, Office Specialty Mfg. Co.; Alex. McIntosh, representing the Newmarket Veterans; Lieut.-Col. N. M. Young, commanding officer, No. 23; and members of the council.

L.-Cpl. Sutton trained in Newmarket for 30 days in 1940. He was unable to join the active service forces for medical reasons. He then joined the Queen's York Rangers reserve battalion. Later in 1941 he enlisted in the active army and trained at Newmarket and Camp Borden. He went overseas as a private in September, 1942, and received his promotion while in England. L.-Cpl. PEOPLE'S UNIVERSITY

By ANDREW HEBB

With the new editor attending a newspaper meeting in Winnipeg this week, I am taking the editor's corner to report briefly on a holiday visit to Nova Scotia. We had not visited my "people" since before the war and when it became possible to get away we just packed up and went. We took two children with us, leaving the baby (with maternal relatives) and the dog (with the poundkeeper) at home.

With so many Newmarket boys travelling to and through Nova Scotia these days one must be careful about what he says, or be corrected, but I think that any who have been down the south shore of Nova Scotia between Halifax and Yarmouth will agree that such natural beauty is not to be found elsewhere. We spent most of our time near Chester, a summer resort village frequented in peace time by wealthy Americans. I was born there but I never appreciated the beauty of it until I had been away and returned.

Chester is on Mahone Bay, a small bay that contains hundreds of islands. The village itself is almost surrounded by the sea, with a "back harbor" and a "front harbor." From elevations behind this village one can look to the east and see an arm of the sea, to the west and see an arm of the sea, and to the south and see a lake, then the village, then the sea, then a tangle of sea and islands. If Nova Scotia is so beautiful why do so few people choose to live there? The answer is contained in the Alberta saying: "Good land, bad roads."

Nova Scotia roads are good, Nova Scotia scenery is amazing, but Nova Scotia land is poor. Except for the fertile Annapolis valley, and two or three other lesser valleys and marsh areas, the land of Nova Scotia is strewn with granite. Ontario farmers could not make a living on most Nova Scotia farms, and Nova Scotia farmers don't grow enough potatoes to supply their own province. They prefer to use their rocky fields to grow hay, and this year as the result of dry weather they won't have enough hay.

Ontario farmers would be surprised to see what a light growth of hay some Nova Scotia farmers try to save. In some instances it would remind them of the day that the oldest boy took his first shave. It would surprise them to see men trimming around rocks with a scythe. It would surprise them to see a wood-topped hand rake used in the fields behind the hay-rack (I have never seen the Ontario hay-wagon with no sides used in Nova Scotia) to gather up stray wisps of hay. It would surprise them to see (as can be seen along Nova Scotia's south shore) a team of oxen drawing the hay from an orchard or small field to a perhaps distant barn.

Ontario farmers would be surprised to see grain mowed like hay and the grain thrown on a hay-rack and pulled by oxen to a distant mill to be threshed, and then the grain and straw brought home again. How then do Nova Scotia farmers make a living?

In the first place, they are not lazy, as some of their cousins seem to think. They make the most of what they have. They waste not and want not. Some make a living by growing market garden crops. Some go into the woods (not "the bush") in the winter. Many are fishermen as well as farmers. They earn a few hundred dollars farming and a few hundred dollars fishing. Some farmers of course have good farms and make a splendid living, although I never heard of a Nova Scotia farmer retiring, as Ontario farmers do, to live in a nearby village or town on their earnings and the proceeds of an auction sale.

Nova Scotia farmers and fishermen not only make the most of what is at hand, but many of them are making an organized effort to get their full share of the sale price of their products. South shore deep sea fishermen work on shares with the owners of their boats (such schooners as the famed "Bluenose") but it is at the other end of the province, in Antigonish county and on Cape Breton island, an area served and inspired by St. Francis Xavier University, that producer and consumer co-operatives and credit unions are growing by leaps and bounds.

I spent three days at Antigonish (the county town and university seat) to learn something of the Nova Scotia co-operative business of probably over $4,000,000 a year. The credit unions encourage thrift among an already thrifty people (highland Scots in this part of Nova Scotia) and provide capital for co-operatives. St. Francis Xavier leaders urge the importance of consumer co-operatives, even though they usually have a difficult time getting established, as a step toward consumer ownership of factories and production completely in tune with consumption.

Even with the savings which their producer and consumer co-operatives give them, and their native thrift, the farmers and fishermen of eastern Nova Scotia remain poorer than our as yet individualistic Ontario farmers. However, I think that those who have undertaken to do for themselves and their neighbors through study and organization are achieving a day-to-day happiness which may be more satisfying than financial success. I was attending a three-day meeting of the Nova Scotia Credit Union League and the Nova Scotia Co-operative Council, and to mingle with farmers, fishermen and miners in the halls of St. Francis Xavier University was to realize that happiness is to be found in striving rather than in arriving.

This little Catholic university, with its great heart and its great vision, has made life worthwhile for thousands of discouraged Nova Scotia fishermen and farmers.

Receives Pope's Medal From Nephew in Italy

Mrs. James Cullen, Sr., received a pope's medal recently from her nephew, Major Edward Ward, which was given to him while attending the pope's audience in Vatican city. His letter says in part: "On our arrival in Rome we set about trying to get accommodation. We applied to the major and he told us about a Canadian officers' club that was open that day. The hotel is now called Chateau Laurier and is quite comfortable."

"Rome is the cleanest Italian city I have seen. It is said Mussolini had 90 percent of the street cleaners in Italy working in Rome. It is indeed a welcome change from Naples and other cities I've been in."

"The street cars are running and there are a few taxis as well as horse-drawn carriages and bicycles. All other traffic is military."

"The highlight of our stay was our visit to St. Peter's Cathedral. We spent all day with a guide and then only scratched the surface. We were sorry we didn't leave our visit to St. Peter's until the last for it far overshadowed anything else we saw."

"The pope's audience chamber is a very large room. At one end is a raised dais which is about eight feet square. On this is a single chair with red upholstery and gold leaf covering the frame. Just before the pope enters two Swiss guards come in and stand on either side of the dais."

"Preceding the pope as he enters are three officers who stand on the dais against the wall. The pope gave a short address of welcome in English and then blessed any religious articles that had been brought in. I am enclosing a medallion that was given out and blessed by the pope."

SWAT THAT FLY

(3) Household contacts are to be quarantined for ten days after the last exposure.

As the house fly has been linked up as a possible carrier of polio as well as of certain other diseases, a word of advice on its extermination might be useful.

About four years ago there was a fatal case of this disease on Eagle St., and a certain eminent American physician, with a representative from the department of health in Toronto, visited the boy's former home for the purpose of making some investigation as to the cause of the disease. They caught all the flies they could find, put them in a bottle and took them to the laboratory for research work on poliomyelitis.

From these flies the virus of the disease has been recovered and paralysis produced in monkeys by inoculation.

So the first piece of advice in the prevention is to keep a fly swatter in every room in the house and swat them even to the last fly, remembering it takes only ten days in warm weather to grow a mature fly from the egg. Do not let the food left on your baby's face become a feeding ground for some fly with its dirty feet fresh from the hatch in the manure pile. Always wipe the baby's face and hands both before and after feeding.

Disinfect all outside privy pits with lime every day.

Wrap all garbage in paper and keep fly-proof metal containers until disposed of at the dump or incinerator.

Regular spraying of all garbage at the dump and covering with ashes or earth. (By the way, our garbage dump is not getting this care.)

Careful attention to the storage of food.

Keeping all doors and windows carefully screened.

In the event of an outbreak of the disease children should keep out of crowds of people. Do not go to such a place as a summer resort by the water where the disease is known to exist and do not go to parties or picnics.

The wisdom of closing schools, Sunday-schools and moving pictures for these youngsters depends on the extent of the outbreak and the number of contacts.

Tonsil operations should be postponed.

As the early symptoms of the disease are often vague and as it is most important to make an early diagnosis, parents are advised to call the doctor at the first of the sickness and not wait for the paralytic to show up first.

County Trains Leaders

York county council education committee is sponsoring a swimming school at Humberstone Collegiate as part of a leadership training course. Deputy Reeve A. D. Evans told Newmarket town council on Monday evening.

The course is for advanced swimmers and is intended to develop swimming coaches. The course is being given on Wednesday evenings from Sept. 6 to Dec. 6.

"It's a real step toward helping against juvenile delinquency," said Mr. Evans.

NEWMARKET BOY HAS ENGLISH BRIDE

THE COMMON ROUND

By ISABEL INGLIS COLVILLE

THRESHING TIME

I am sure that sometime a great epic poem will be written about threshing, from its inception to its present stage, and with a few futuristic dreams thrown in for good measure. Years ago, if one lived in a town, one's ideas of threshing were confined to the sight of a sort of locomotive, puffing black smoke and sparks, straying about the country roads, with a huge contraption attached. If you drove or rode a horse it was, in the fall, the bane of your existence and at the first sound and sight of its clanking and sparking driver or rider made for the nearest lane. But if you were forced, by lack of a convenient lane, to face the fiery dragon, your fate depended on the mood of the man on the threshing machine.

If this lordly individual, whose huge machines took up all the roads of those days, were in an amiable and charitable mood, he stopped and only puffed and panted instead of clanking and groaning. In this case, you, if you were bold, determined and skilful driver, urged your horse, which had fled itself into a bowknot, past the evil thing, and with a nod of thanks to the thrasher, went on your way, chastened in spirit and hoping for a place of refuge at your next encounter.

If the thrasher were of a dour and stubborn nature, he monopolized the road and seemed to take delight in adding a few more squeaks and yells to his already ill assortment. Then you either got out and tried to lead your horse, which by this time could rival any kangaroo Australia ever produced, past the monster, or you didn't get time to get out and were ignominiously ditched, while your frantic steed departed for regions unknown.

Then, if you came to live in the country you watched the evolution of the pseudo locomotive to the tractor and saw with interest that the advent of cars—cars in their own backyard—evolved a species of horse positively blasé where machinery was concerned. "Let them huff and puff and hiss and spit," say the querries of today, "we know their tricks and their manners and they have to give us half the road," and so they plod along without a care.

But one thing about threshing, except where a farmer has a "combine"—has not changed, and that is the meals. Eleven or 12 hungry and thirsty men must be refreshed as to the inner man and so the woman of the house goes to store or locker and brings home the huge roast, which with its brown gravy and accompanying vegetables, must be on the table in good time. The pies are often baked the day before, and many a woman blesses the thrasher who gives fair warning of his coming, instead of descending "like a wolf on the fold" and creating near hysteria as a frantic woman rushes hither and yon, trying to do 50 things in the space of as many moments.

Threshing is a co-operative affair—you help me, I help you—and the women practise it too, for very seldom in these lacking a neighbor willing to lend a hand ready to concoct a special salad or prepare vegetables and above all, to help clear up the aftermath when the threshers have departed and the women sit down with a fresh pot of tea to salvage a dinner and compare backs and feet—which aches!

But the day, like all days, draws to a close, and although tired, the farmer and his wife see that food for the stock is safely garnered in and the sun setting over the bare fields is peaceful and beautiful; they can relax and feel one phase of the year's work is done.

Combines, of course, mean quick, effective harvesting, lessening work for both house and farm, and no doubt, one day, there will be no threshings as we know them now. And this is good, as any labor saver is good, but the genial fellowship in field and house of the old threshings will never be forgotten—they will hold an honored place in the saga of the farm.

POT POURRI

By GOLDEN GLOW

In response to an overseas letter, I have decided to write a pot pourri article this week. A pot pourri correspondent said, "We have missed your weekly letter, Golden Glow—won't you write us chaps another pot pourri? Your weekly letters in the Era spell home to us." Now who could resist such an appeal?

Yes, I will write a pot pourri this week! As it says in Alice in Wonderland, that old-time favorite, the time has come, the Walrus said, to talk of many things, of shoes and ships and sealing wax, of cabbages and kings; and why the sea is boiling hot and whether pigs have wings.

This, as usual, will be a mixture, and I am writing it especially for you boys overseas, for I have had several requests for more items about things round town. I am so glad to know you enjoy the little home touches—for it is really just little items about Main Street, neighborhood gardens, Fairy Lake, our famous elm tree, Lions' park and the view from Prospect Ave. up to Pickering college that, as my correspondent said, "spell home" to you boys overseas.

I am writing it also for a dear girlhood friend who, with her husband, went to make her home in England shortly before war broke out, and who has given many of our Newmarket boys a "home away from home" ever since the Royal Regiment arrived in England after their arrival there in 1940. I refer to Mrs. George Hawtin, the former Kit Cane, younger daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cane and cousin of our genial postmaster, Mr. Laurie Cane, and the late Sheriff Howard Cane. She has taken the Era all these years and kept herself well informed on town happenings. But even if one does read the Era faithfully every week it cannot tell all the little intimate things about your neighbor's garden or the wonderful improvements now under way at the cemetery, for instance.

Yes, you will see some wonderful changes there at the cemetery, for instance, the two vaults that stood on either side of the central driveway are now no more—the Paterson vault and the Dr. Nash vault that stood in the hillside beside the long flight of steps to the right of the driveway. The grand old trees are still all there and the gray squirrels. The mournful moans that I have told about before, still make their homes there. But the driveways round the outside where the cars drive out, you know what I mean, you are supposed to drive up the central roadway and come down and out round either side, well, the south side has been widened and surfaced and now extensive improvements are in progress along the northern driveway, the bank is all being built up with stones and cement in a grand old style.

To the left, beside the caretaker's residence, is the new building, taking the place of the old mortuary. In spite of lack of help, the caretaker, Mr. Wally Adams, keeps it wonderfully neat. He has had to depend on help from high school students and I understand Mrs. Adams volunteered to help with the clippings. So you see we have to thank it to our Canadian women all along the line. You will find the cemetery just as lovely as ever in spite of everything, thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Adams.

And while up at that end of the town I want to call your attention to a delightful Bird-house (notice I have put a capital B, it really deserves it). It stands on a high pole just at the cross-road below the cemetery and if you are interested in bird-houses this one will surely catch your eye. It is round, no doubt having a small nuthatch for a foundation, and has two stories, an upstairs and a down. But the cute part is the little circular stair-case leading up to the second story, hand-rail and all! The birds must just love it. And it is all beautifully finished to the last detail. I must find out some day who built it and add my congratulations to the host who must have received, for it is a beauty!

Before we leave up there, suppose we pause for a last look around from the hill up in the cemetery. To the east towards the railroad tracks is what we always used to call the Indians' Grove. You no doubt heard the legend in your younger days that it is an Indian graveyard. If you are, and the wonderful feeling this year of the trees is the site of the famous Newmarket canal and the beautiful countryside beyond. Letting your eyes travel south you are surprised to find lovely homes—new residences, built in the past few years from the cemetery fence round the corner of that short road and up to what we might call "Nagara St. north of Huron" for lack of knowing what it is called. I know there is a Vincent St. and an Amelia St. in there, but I never had to specify it by name before. So be prepared for new houses up there!

This summer, up to this terrific

GEORGE WILLIAM RAE WAS SHIPPER AND GARDENER

Mr. Rae was a member of Christ church, Rochester's Point. Reading and the radio comprised his chief interests.

Surviving are his widow, two sons, Tpr. Graham Rae, who has been reported missing, and E. M. Rae, who is on active service with the navy, and one daughter, Mrs. R. H. Allen (Dorothy), Toronto.

Rev. T. J. Rhodes conducted the funeral service at Christ church on July 2. The pallbearers were: William St. Doyle, G. Langridge, W. Kelley and F. Somerville.

ally hot week, the grass and the trees have remained a beautiful green. The growth has been tremendous and the whole world looks so wonderful. Maybe the good news from overseas things things a bit for us as well!

But I am not getting far—I'd better tell about something else.—George Potpourri in "George and the Home Guard," on Civic holiday. If you boys want a good laugh and haven't seen George in that one, well, just go and enjoy an evening's fun. It will do you good—I know it did me good after things had piled up till I couldn't had to relax or break. So if you see like that I'd say "Let George do it!" I'll leave you for this week, but I'll come again soon and with another "letter" Cheers.

TWENTY-THREE LAST WEEK

The first of the month dawned bright and red—not only because the weather was excellent but also because Fire Chief Jack Aubin was busy with a big paint brush, applying a liberal coat of fiery red paint to all fire halls and hydrants. Then, evidently in order to draw his work specifically to attention, a fire drill was held, which caught many a trooper with nothing but a bath towel between him and observation.

During the course of the afternoon, C.W.A.C. Capt. Allison of the R.C.A.M.C. showed a film to the girls of the centre of an educational nature, which she supplemented with a lecture.

Two officers were welcomed to the centre, Lieut. J. E. Highton and Lieut. D. A. Wade.

In the evening the softball team travelled to Borden and suffered a defeat at the hands of the No. 2 C.A.C.T.R. team to the tune of 12-7.

At about 1.30 a.m. the centre was visited by an R.C.A.F. man who treated everyone—and that's literally true because everyone was awake—to a display of daring, breath-taking stunt flying. It was reported that the swallows nesting in several chimneys of the camp were swept away by prop-wash.

It's a pleasure to report that two old friends, Sgt. Dick Hugo and Sgt. Jack Ferries, were confirmed in their rank.

The centre welcomes a new C.Q.M.S., George Warner, who came to us from Brampton. We all wish George success in his work here and we hope his presence will make Alex. Waldrum's work a bit easier.

Wednesday evening celebrated the end of training at Newmarket for No. 13 troop, D Squadron, and it's reported that a pleasant time was had by all during the course of an informal party.

The camp softball team recovered themselves at Brampton beating No. 2 C.R.U. in a knock-out game by a score of 16-1.

Thursday saw the district medical officer, Col. Argue, in camp on a tour of inspection of the M.I.R. and the hospital.

There was an inward movement during the course of the day and in the evening the new boys were treated to a soccer game in camp between A and C squadrons, which C won after a hard-fought overtime game by a score of 2-1. That wasn't the only attraction, however, because in another part of camp the softball team completely vindicated itself by trouncing T.S.R. A-33 by a score of 18-2.

The soccer game at Withrow park, Toronto, in which our camp soccer team was to have participated, was cancelled.

When discussing the cancellation, Sgt. Major Bowman assured this reporter that the team was in its league to win, so great things may be expected of its next game on the 24th.

On Friday, although the heat was almost overpowering, a track team from C Squadron accepted the challenge of a team from A Squadron to a five-mile run. A won by approximately three minutes, setting up a nice time of 40 minutes and 55 seconds.

A visitor to the camp in the evening was Major Page of No. 2 C.A.C.T.R., who took Lieut. Briggs back with him.

Saturday was highlighted by a trip to the Salvation Army camp at Lake Simcoe by a softball team. The team lost to the lake team by a score of 36-17, much to the delight of our hosts.

We suspect, however, that their good fortune was largely due to the fact that Capt. Peter Kerr of the S.A., who used to be our S.A. man here, was playing with the opposition, tipping them off to our tactics.

On Sunday a number of old friends paid a welcome visit to the centre. Major Roger Clarkson, Toronto, renewed old ties as did Capt. Barney Cooper. Sgt. Major Mawson received a hearty greeting. Lieut. Ronalds, W.T.O. of No. 1 C.A.C.T.R. Camp Borden, and Bandmaster Moore of Aurora were here.

Our new Salvation Army representative, Capt. H. McLean, conducted the Protestant services in the drill hall, presenting an interesting address in an engaging informal manner.

Monday night was a night of great excitement in the camp for a widely advertised softball game took place on the lower diamond. It's a well-known fact that Lieut. Fred White makes no bones about the excellence of his school in positively every field of endeavor. It was with a great deal of sang-froid, therefore, that he accepted the challenge of C Squadron to meet the school in a bit of a game on Monday night.

Lieuts. Allin and Quintenton, according to Freddie, scrounged enough nickels out of their squadron during the course of Monday afternoon to eventually be able to approach him with a little wager in mind. However, Freddie is a cagey old bird and let no moths fly—not that he didn't want to wager, mind you, but the odds weren't right and besides, two dollars isn't worth reaching into your pocket for.

Then came the big game. On the left, C Squadron seated en masse, was rendering fervent hymns of a decidedly uncompromising nature to the S. of L.

DEATH CLAIMS R.S.M. JOWETT

Known and beloved by countless "old sweats" and soldiers of the present war, Lewis Jowett, regimental sergeant-major of the 2nd battalion, Queen's York Rangers (reserve), was carried to his last rest in Toronto on Monday with full military honours.

Mr. Jowett was born in England near Sheffield, and enlisted in 1896 with the Duke of Wellington's West Riding regiment. He took part in the South African war, receiving a decoration. In 1913 he came to Canada, but the outbreak of war sent him back to his first love, the army, and in 1914 he went overseas as R.S.M. of the 74th battalion.

This battalion was broken up and he was appointed R.S.M. of the 127th battalion, composed largely of North York men. The 127th was broken up and he was transferred to the 2nd railway troops. In 1919 he was demobilized and he immediately joined the Queen's Rangers as R.S.M. This unit was amalgamated in 1936 with the 12th York Rangers and Mr. Jowett continued in his post until his death last week.

With 48 years of service to his credit, he made his 24th trip to Niagara camp last week but was seized with a heart attack and came home during the first week of training. In 1942 he was awarded the Canadian Efficiency Medal, his seventh or eighth award, and at the presentation ceremony the entire unit he loved so well did him honor. On many occasions he was offered a commission but turned down the offer to remain as R.S.M., a post he filled with dignity and honor for many years. Unable to go on active service in this war he took pride in the number of Queen's Yorks on active service.

A large number of county reserve officers and men, including Lieut.-Col. C. E. Reeve and Major Earl Bates, attended the service in St. Jude's Anglican church, with the padre of the county unit, Capt. the Rev. J. W. Shires, conducting the service.

In private life Mr. Jowett was a member of the city of Toronto assessment department, and for 15 years was secretary of the Toronto and District Football Association as well as being a prominent referee.

Surviving are his widow and three sons, Fred, Donald and Harry, all of Toronto, the latter being a member of the 2nd battalion, Queen's York Rangers.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Barradell, Strathclair, Man., spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Barradell and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webster.

QUEEN'S YORKS MAKE FINE NIAGARA SHOWING

Bronzed and the picture of health, C. Coy., Queen's York Rangers, returned from Camp Niagara on Saturday after two weeks of glorious, if warm, weather, anxious to see the folks and to get back to civilian tasks.

Training this year was more mechanized than in other years with the result there were no sore feet. The food was plentiful and described as "the best ever."

Demonstrations by a picked squad from Long Branch training centre gave the boys an opportunity to see small arms fire, camouflage, grenades, the Piat and Bazooka guns and mortars in action. Firing was done with the rifle on both the 30-yard and the 200-yard range, with Pte. Joe Hutchinson being one of the best company shots. Lieut. Donald Wade posted some high scores in the officers' competition.

Second-year men fired the Bren gun. A visit was made to the Welland canal area and a night scheme carried out. Sgt. George Shoults, Cpl. Jim Cherry and Ptes. Gaston, Orr and Sherwood were the company motor transport drivers. On Sunday, Aug. 6, rain prevented the usual garrison church parade but the regiment joined in an indoor service, with the padre, Rev. Capt. J. W. R. Shires, taking part.

Thursday, Aug. 10, saw the unit field day under the direction of Lieuts. Delroy Babcock and Arnold Miller and honors went to D Coy. With only a handful of entries compared with the other companies, the North York boys made a creditable showing. C.S.M. Jack Orr took the 60-yard dash for men over 45, while Sgt. Harold Corbett finished third in both the standing broad and running broad jumps. Harold actually made the furthest jump in the latter event but accidentally fouled. B Coy. from Weston took honors in soccer and softball.

With R.S.M. Jowett out of action, C.S.M. Stokes of Toronto acted as R.S.M. Capt. Tom Hopkins, Lieuts. Babcock, Wade and Miller all were busy on instructional or regimental duties. Lieut. Larry Bell was pressed into service to assist the regimental quartermaster and did yeoman service.

During the two weeks Lieut. Col. C. E. Reeve and many of the troops visited historical sites in the district with which the history of the Queen's Rangers is so inseparably bound.

Only accidents reported to C Coy. were a sprained ankle to L.-Cpl. Gilbert Oosterhuis, and a sprained wrist to Pte. Joe Hutchinson. Capt. C. J. Devins, Aurora doctor, spent one week at camp. Major Barnett took charge the second week.

With 350 men in camp, the regiment made as fine a showing as any. From now until Thursday, Oct. 5, all training will be suspended. By that time it is likely that a good number of the men will be on active service and more recruits will be needed.

Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson, 87, Does Own Housework

Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson, Mosley St., celebrated her 87th birthday on Sunday, Aug. 13. Mrs. Robinson was born near Snowball. Her maiden name was Garrow. She came to Aurora with her husband 52 years ago. Mr. Robinson died a few years ago.

Although not in the best of health, Mrs. Robinson is able to do her own housework. Since her last birthday, she has moved, supervising and doing a good deal of the work involved. She is a member of Aurora Baptist church.

Residing with her is her son, Melvin ("Barney") Robinson, an employee of the town. Two daughters, Mrs. Norman Banbury and Mrs. Alan Langman, reside in Aurora.

Mrs. Robinson follows the war closely as she has three grandsons on active service, two of whom are overseas. Superstitions concerning the 13th have never bothered her.

FALL SHOW IS SATURDAY

The first fall show of the Aurora Horticultural Society will be held on Saturday, Aug. 19, in the Aurora United church parlors. Gladioli, asters and other blooms will be displayed.

RECEIVES EYE INJURY

Seven-year-old Isobel MacGirr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William MacGirr, Mosley St., suffered a serious and painful eye injury on Friday when she was struck in the eye with a stone while playing. She was treated by Dr. C. J. Devins and then taken to a Toronto hospital for an operation.

HONOR NEWLYWEDS WITH PRESENTATION

Over 100 friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Lancelotti of Canton held a dance and presentation in the Orange Hall, Port Hope, in honor of their recent marriage. Mr. Lancelotti is an Oak Ridge boy.

A handsome breakfast suite in natural wood with red trimmings was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Mills, who expressed their appreciation in a gracious manner. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. Mills is a star in baseball and hockey and his wife will be in charge of the school at Canton in September.

Midgets Down Newmarket Team 15-8 In Six Innings

Aurora Midgets jumped back into the North York baseball championship race in the Aurora park last Thursday night by downing Charlie VanZant's Newmarket sprouts 15-8 in a six-inning fixture.

The win left both teams tied and a third and rubber game will be necessary. Both teams got the same number of hits but the Aurora boys were better in the field and were able to bunch their hits.

Aurora had an edge from the first inning onward and played with more confidence than did Newmarket. Lagozier went the route for Aurora, the French-Canadian kid being touched for ten bingles, all singles, but keeping them well scattered. He struck out two, walked four, but was generally master of the situation.

Broughton and Hopper worked for the canal-towners. Broughton was touched for six hits, whiffing four and passing three. Bill Hopper in two and two-thirds innings allowed four hits, fanned four and walked four. The free tickets to first base were costly to the Newmarket boys. Umpire Bob Peters called the game because of darkness at the end of the sixth.

Gar. Doolittle of Aurora and Rutledge of Newmarket each got three hits. Doolittle had two doubles in his total. Johnston and Norman Rank each obtained two hits, other hitters being restricted to lone bingles.

Newmarket got three runs in the first, on a walk, error and three hits. Two runners were left on as McTavish's hit was gathered in by Doolittle. Three errors and three hits produced a five-run total for Aurora.

Both teams got two counters in the second, but from then on Lagozier pretty well silenced the Newmarket bats. Aurora broke out for another five-run spurge in the fifth, which saw Hopper go to the mound.

Newmarket: McHale cf, Rutledge ss, Hopper 1b, Winger c, Johnston lf, Brown rf, Dales 3b, McTavish 2b, Broughton p.

Aurora: McGhee 1b, Lagozier p, Smith 3b, Rank c, G. Doolittle cf, L. Doolittle lf, Milne rf, Cameron ss, Simmons 2b.

Umpires: Bob Peters and Syd. Lustic.

WITH THE CHURCHES

W. H. Taylor, Anglican lay reader of Toronto and son of Major W. H. Taylor, Aurora, took Sunday evening's service at Trinity Anglican church.

Rev. A. R. Park of Aurora Baptist church has returned from holidays and took Sunday's services.

MARCH AT WOODBRIDGE

Members of Aurora Royal Black Preceptory No. 1081 paraded at the Derry Day celebration at Woodbridge on Saturday, headed by Wor. Sir Kt. Lorne C. Lee of Aurora. Considering the warm weather and the call of war industry and farming there was a good turnout.

A number of the members of Queen Mary L.O.B.A. were present but did not march as a lodge. Absent from the parade because of illness was Rt. Wor. Sir Kt. Rev. Thomas White of Aurora. The Aurora lodge marched for the 23rd year since its formation.

FUT OUT FIRE

Fast work by the Aurora fire brigade prevented a serious bush fire at St. Andrew's College on Friday afternoon. Previous to the students returning for the fall, an old hay field was being burnt off by college employees when the blaze spread to nearby trees. Only a little damage was done.

WOUNDED IN NORMANDY

Mr. and Mrs. Merremus Doolittle have received word that the wounds suffered in Normandy by their son, Gnr. Albert Doolittle, are abdomen wounds, but are not of a serious nature and that he is getting along well.

AURORA MITES LOSE TO HILL BANTAMS, 9-4

Richmond Hill bantams took over the league leadership by defeating Aurora mites 9-4 in the Hill last Wednesday. The issue was never in doubt, Ronnie Simmons lacking control and the Hill kids fielding better.

Three innings of three run clusters was all that was needed. Charles and Atkinson pitched for the winners. John King, with three hits, led the Aurora attack and fielded well. Both teams got eight hits.

Aurora: King 3b, Nesbitt lf, R. Simmons p, Milne 1b, Holman c, Cook and Heard rf, Davis cf, Warlow cf, G. Simmons ss, Anthony 2b.

Loring Doolittle and Ernie Fairs of Aurora handled the game.

BOWLERS TAKE PRIZES

Aurora lawn bowlers cleaned up at the trebles tournament at Tottenham on Saturday. High for three wins went to Charles Malloy, Charles Fry and Harry Teasdale. High for two wins saw Herb Holman, Harvey Fingold and Art Atkinson take the war savings stamps.

Starlings By Thousands Visit Aurora Twice Daily

Residents in the vicinity of the Aurora town park each evening and morning have their own outdoor symphony concert. There are no instruments and there is no visible Tchaikowsky, but as evening falls the chirps of thousands of starlings break forth in unison and keep going at full tilt until dark, with no change in tempo or volume.

Sometimes it is necessary to raise your voice to make yourself heard. The starlings, knowing Aurora has the welcome sign out, are bringing their relatives into town too, and their housing area is spreading. As dawn appears the birds warble again, then depart for the neighboring countryside or gardens for the day, returning each night pretty well according to schedule. Cleanliness is no virtue of the starlings and housewives are beginning to complain.

Last year, Town Foreman James Goulding took his trusty gun to the park and scared the birds away. This year the numbers are increased and one resident suggested artillery or robot bombs might be necessary. A piped pip to lead the birds away is the wish of the district residents.

WANT "MILE OF PENNIES"

The Aurora Women's Institute is sponsoring its annual "mile of pennies" drive Saturday afternoon and evening. A booth in front of the post office will be used to construct the monetary distance. The proceeds will go for charities supported by the Institute.

Era and Express classifieds bring finder and loser together.

Donald Gleave Is Killed, Two Brothers Overseas

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Gleave, Aurora, have received word that their youngest son, Pte. Donald Gleave, was killed in action in Normandy on July 29. Pte. Gleave, one of three brothers on active service, enlisted in 1942 with the provost corps, transferring to the artillery and training at Petawawa camp. He went overseas with his brother, Alan, in 1943, and was transferred from the artillery to the infantry a few months ago. Prior to his enlistment Pte. Gleave was a farmer. At present Alan is in an English hospital with a broken collarbone.

Pte. Gleave was born in King township and educated at Snowball and Aurora. Serving overseas are two brothers, William and Alan. Besides his parents are his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Mount, and two sisters, Mrs. Leonard Chapman, whose husband is in Italy, and Miss Jean Gleave, Aurora.

WILL HOLD SERVICE FOR TPR. D. G. MCKENZIE

As part of the regular service at Aurora United church Sunday morning a memorial service for Tpr. Douglas George McKenzie, who died in France in July, will be held. Rev. Roy Hicks, pastor of the church, will be in charge.

Members of the Aurora town council and other civic bodies will attend.

OFFICER PAYS TRIBUTE TO PTE. BILL HEATH

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Heath have received a letter from Col. W. T. Law, officer commanding the special detachment of Canadian troops with whom their son, the late Pte. Bill Heath, served in France.

Col. Law paid tribute to Pte. Heath's efficiency as a soldier, and told how, on the second day of the invasion while the boys were "digging in," a German plane had come over and dropped a bomb on the troops, bringing instant death to the Aurora lad and some of his companions. He was buried on French soil with military honors.

STUDENT "BAILS OUT" WHEN PLANE CRASHES

An R.C.A.F. plane crashed at Brownhill early Tuesday morning. The student pilot was able to bail out of the plane but the instructor was in the plane when it crashed. He was able to crawl out and received only some bruises on his arm and possibly a sprained back.

While a posse of farmers and police were hunting in the swamps for the student pilot, he walked to a farm home three miles southeast of Brownhill.

The pilot walked to the home of E. Morton.

Dr. M. D. Tuchtie, Sutton, administered first aid and the pilots were taken back to their base at Camp Borden. Constable William Hill of Sutton organized the searching party.

FATHER DIES

The death occurred at Claremont on Saturday, Aug. 12, of James Leggett, a well-known resident of Pickering township. He was in his 86th year and had lived in the district most of his life.

The funeral service was held at his residence on Monday evening, with interment at Little Lake cemetery, Peterboro, on Tuesday.

He is survived by his widow and four sons, Herbert, Barston, California, Robert, Aurora, John, Pontypool, and August, Jellicoe.

ATTENDS ORANGE WALK

Rt. Wor. Sir Kt. Major W. H. Taylor, veteran Aurora Orangeman, and a Grand lodge officer of the R.B.P., made his annual appearance on Derry Day at Woodbridge with the Aurora Black Knights. Mr. Taylor has not missed an Aug. 12 walk in many years. He celebrated his 81st birthday a few weeks ago.

PARADES AT 83

One of the oldest Orangemen on parade at Woodbridge on Saturday was Wor. Sir Kt. Jack McDonald of Lindsay. Mr. McDonald, a former Newmarket resident and father of Mrs. Orval Heath, Aurora, is 83 years of age and has been a member of the Orange Order for 54 years.

Mr. McDonald has been a Black Knight for over 35 years, joining the Toronto King Solomon preceptory first, transferring to the now defunct Newmarket preceptory and then affiliating with Aurora.

BOAKS WINS NINTH TITLE, DEFEATS JONES

Seems as if type should be held from year to year when it comes to giving you the golf news, for that fellow Bill Boaks has done it again. He has captured the open golf championship of the Aurora Golf and Country club for the ninth time in ten tries.

This year he would frankly admit he probably played the worst final round of his career and that goes too for his 17-year-old opponent, Alan ("Whitey") Jones. Both fellows are really par-killers but the hot weather was not conducive to the best of golf. Bill shooting an 81 and "Whitey" an 88, for 36 holes.

Jones, who was an even-money favorite, got off to a bad start and never recovered, but at the 35th hole had a chance to tie the series with an eagle three. He missed a long putt and halved the hole with Boaks, both getting birdie fours.

DOWN THE CENTRE

John Stuart, the Aurora boy who now resides at Markham and boasts a growing racing stable, scored his first important win of the season at Hamilton track last week, when Jackies, for whom he paid a price in five figures, captured a $1,500 event, but better than that paid $14.50 to win. If we know Mr. Stuart he would be aboard. Jackies, a six-year-old, is just rounding into shape and can be watched with interest the rest of the year.

The Sheriff, another Stuart nag, in the two-year-old class, stamped himself as in the future class, by also taking a nice win. He is an offspring of the famous Bunt Lawless. Mr. Stuart lost a promising filly, Ellen Hill, in a claiming race recently and no sooner did the new owner get possession than she galloped home first.

Shepperton, ace Canadian speedster, is now breathing the air of old North York at Gormley after an unsuccessful attempt to crash some of the best American purses. It was no go. Either the American horses are too good, which means Shepperton is over-rated, or else the change in climate and travelling were bad. Fred Schelke, the owner, has no alibis but he does say that Shepperton eats a half bale of hay per diem and just wouldn't eat the American variety.

Hay is costing $45 at American tracks right now, which, while it may be a bit corny, ain't exactly hay. In addition, the American tracks were harder surfaced due to the prolonged dry spell and the big horse's feet and knees suffered. Fred will have Shep. ready for the big Canadian fall events and is half-inclined to have another go at the American tracks this fall, which would seem to indicate he believes his favorite can do better or else he's misjudging something the canny Mr. Schelke seldom does. Incidentally, a few weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Schelke celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary.

Tulachmore, owned by an ex-warden of York, William Edwards McDonald, reeve of New Toronto, Shepperton's big Canadian rival, met with no more success than the Schelke horse, which pretty well bears out the general belief that American horses in the bigger stakes at least are faster than the best of the Canucks. It's like boxing, the general rule being that a good big man can always take a good little fellow.

Frank Claxey, who played lacrosse for Thornhill juniors a few years ago, and also for Woodbridge intermediates, has been promoted to the rank of major overseas. Major Claxey was an N.C.O. with C. Coy., Queen's York Rangers reserve, in 1940. Received his commission that fall, went active with the armored corps in 1941 and proceeded overseas the same year.

Speaking of lacrosse, there is a four-club circuit being formed at Camp Borden with No. 2, T. and S. Wing, R.C.A.F. and a "combine" team from the rest of the camp ready for box. Capt. "Silver" Bennett of Toronto, who played many a game in Aurora, Newmarket and Bradford in the old days, is managing the Combines.

Eric Gardner of Aurora is seriously considering a comeback with the army boys. Eric played juvenile and junior with Newmarket and Bradford and also junior with Orillia.

Jack Findlay, of Thornhill juniors in the early thirties, who is at the same centre as Gardner, is also readying for a comeback. Findlay was a pretty fair performer too.

"Bum" White of Owen Sound-Brampton fame, known to both Aurora and Newmarket lacrosse and hockey fans, will be the pivot of the Combines team.

Bill Walker of King, former Aurora high school athlete back from overseas, is taking air-crew training at Toronto and hopes to be overseas again too.

Howard Follitt, a pilot officer overseas, once leading all-round athlete at Aurora high school, is a finishing instructor overseas, giving the lads the final low-down before they go to fangle in the skies with the Nazis.

News was received by his mother last week that Alex. Campbell, 20-year-old red-headed King boy, now a flight-lieutenant, was missing on operations. Alex. attended Aurora high school, where he played hockey, basketball and track, although never a star. In 1941 he was a member of that surprising team of cast-offs who, while not given much chance to go any place by the wisecracks, went on to win the senior boys' North York title. Every boy on that club, with the exception of one now at university, is on active service.

The team included Howard Follitt, "Blondie" Rawlings, Pete Hughes, Bill Stephens, Bob Burton, Fred Pugliese and Harvey Fingold. By the same token the championship junior team of that season has all but two of the lads serving king and country. Their line-up included Bill Thompson, Craig McKenzie, Ernie Davis, Ron Kyle, Bill Griffith, Doug Nisbet, Earl Rose, Al Stephenson, Ted Johnson, Bill Gilkes and Bill Babcock.

We doubt if a more powerful aggregation was ever assembled in junior basketball. McKenzie and Nisbet are both overseas with commissions and in action over enemy countries.

We must not forget either that Coach Norman Johnson set a fine example for his boys by going on active service too, although a veteran of World War I. The Aurora school has a proud record of service.

Bad news came last weekend when we learned of the death in action of Johnny O'Connor, one of the stand-out athletes of the past decade. Young O'Connor, 23-year-old Newmarket boy, excelled particularly in boxing, featuring many a Newmarket card and going into Toronto on some of Benny Stockley's hand Decon Allen's shows to headline cards. He also promoted a few shows at Newmarket himself.

He had a terrific wallop and was very game. He was a better than average cyclist and rode for the Aurora Cycling club, whose honor roll is now growing large. He tried hockey too but didn't really give it the whirl his talent warranted. As recently as two months ago, Sgt.

Ken Brown of the same unit wrote to tell us of Johnny's overseas ring triumphs.

From Montreal comes discouraging word of the condition of one of the greatest little guys we have ever known, Pete West. Pete, the Aurora boy, who was a stand-out at hockey, softball and lacrosse for over ten years, lies in a Montreal hospital fighting for his life. His family are at his bedside and the sporting fraternity, we know, will be pulling hard for the lad who gave everything he had on the playing field and ice surface for both Aurora and Newmarket. "Ninny" is a member of the ordinance corps, was stricken with a rare ailment a few months ago.

Harry Couse, who three years ago this week pitched a no-hit, no-run game for Barrie Collegians against Richmond Hill Roses to take the York-Simcoe softball crown, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant. A few days ago, while on furlough, he pitched for Creemore in a softball tournament and was just good enough with a team otherwise not too strong to down the best teams in the district including Wes. Perry, Steve Hines and Co. from Barrie. Harry, because of his "crooked arm," has not been able to proceed overseas and is stationed at Petawawa.

He is just young enough too, being about 24 now, to have plenty of good pitching years when the war is over. Given a good team behind him, Couse in our opinion is the equal of any of the present-day Toronto fastball hurlers.

A team-mate of the same year and one of the best outfielders ever to play in the York-Simcoe league, Harold Taling of Barrie is now seeing action in France with the Engineers. Harold will perhaps be better recalled if we refer to him as "Red." With the exception of Herb, Cain, Will, White and Freddie Norris, there were none in the same class.

Newmarket camp softballers got off to a fine start in the C.A.C. playdowns last Thursday night as they downed No. 3 C.A.C.T.R. 6-0 in the first game. Actually, the count was much closer, as the Borden boys got just about as many hits but couldn't connect through the pinches. Jackie Moon pitched for Newmarket and did a fair job. Where "Joint" McComb was we don't know.

Hugo Kulkemas of Montreal is a newcomer to the Newmarket outfield and he displayed plenty of class, making one particularly nice catch. Long John Callanan came up with a dandy too that pulled his team out of a hole. In fairness to the No. 3 team it should be pointed out that several of their top-flight stars have gone overseas in recent weeks.

Bob King of Brantford, who has done some spectacular pitching around St. Catharines, is the new addition to the No. 23 team and should strengthen the team. He will probably see immediate action. Jimmy Fennell, the defence star of Barrie Colts and No. 2 last winter, played in the infield for Newmarket and did fairly well. We pick Newmarket as sure finalists on their showing. With more timely hitting they will be dangerous.

Kunor persists that "Joint" McComb will shortly be discharged from the army and will join the Boston Bruins next winter. Boston is more than interested. McComb naturally is willing. So it only remains for the army to make a decision.

Ralph Webb, one-time professional at the Aurora Golf club, deserves mention for the way in which he handled the big Maple Leaf open golf tournament at the Beaulieu club. We had a big glimpse and everything was working to perfection. Always good on greens, Webb, who is pro at Beaulieu, has one course in wonderful shape despite the labor shortage. Food, drink, lodgings were provided for the visiting golfers and the visitors, and during the day the clubhouse resembled a big hotel. That most everybody was satisfied is a big tribute to Ralph and makes some of his Aurora critics take backwater. It is well to remember that there was a depression on when Webb was here and no millionaires. Sharing honors with Webb as was at the local club but his second wife.

"Happy" Emms, former big-time hockey player, coach of the Omaha Knights and the past two years in charge of the Barrie Colts, has been put in charge of the St. Louis Flyers in the American Hockey association. They have decided to operate again after a year's out of hockey. It is the first association since the war started and is a sure sign that somebody thinks victory is in sight. Emms, according to what we hear, intends to take three or four of the Barrie Colts who are too young for active service to St. Louis with him. Several other district players will be given a chance too.

Two former Barrie players, both well known here, middle-aged it last weekend. Jack Dyle, the big defenceman who had a whirl with Chicago Black Hawks last winter, married Miss Ruth Cleland, and "Red" Jennett, the Thornton boy who held some sort of a record for years of playing in the junior series and is now with the R.C.A.F. on the west coast, married Miss Phyllis Baker of Ivy.

September third is a date those of you who have a bit of spare gas or want a reasonable trade-in price can mark down in your little red book as a stand-out event. It is the day when the Canadian armored corps will hold its field day and at home at Camp Borden, and all are invited. Newmarket and Orillia camps will compete for the corps track championships and some of the finest track athletes will be seen in action.

Cpl. Jack Life, better known to many for his last winter's hockey performance with Newmarket camp, will head the track team from Newmarket and will clash with Lieut. Jimmy Holmes, generally regarded as top army sprinter. Life broke Holmes' M.D. 2 record only a few weeks ago, so you can see the situation. Hugh Taylor, army high jump champion, and many more will go all out for their teams.

In addition, there is a Miss Armored Corps beauty contest, a prize for the most beautiful visitor, baby show, band concert, display of armored fighting vehicles and many more attractions. The gates at Borden will open at 10 o'clock and visiting hours are extended. The main events get under way at 1:30 p.m. with preliminaries in the morning. Complete details for the visitor's comfort and pleasure have been arranged, which means "tuff sed" for you all know these fellows in the black berets, be it at Newmarket, Orillia or Borden, put over a pretty swell job of whatever they tackle.

Don and Verdon Sutton of Aurora have both been reported wounded in action and are in hospital in England. Both boys while not in the star athlete class, played ball and football with Fleury-Bisset in the Aurora town league and were regular followers of all North York sports. Don, who is around 28, is the more seriously injured, while "Dick" who enlisted at 17 and never really had a chance to show his wares in sport, is only lightly hit.

Brother "Mickey" Sutton is with the armored corps at Borden while Harry, Jr., was turned down for active service. Their father, Harry Sr., is a veteran of the last war and was a pretty fair ball player in his day.

A new mile record was set recently by Arne Anderson of Sweden, who defeated the famous Gundar Haegg. The time was 4:08.6 and that four-minute mile which has been the topic in sports for nearly a hundred years seems not too far away. Seventy years ago the mile was run in 4:24 in England faster than 80 per cent of Canadian track men do now. Walter Blade of England was the runner. Eight years later another Englishman, Walter George, brought the time down to 4:21. Then the U.S.A. took a hand at it. Tom Cinnott in 1895 lowered the mark to 4:15, the biggest drop of all. That record stood for 18 years and then in 1913 John Paul Jones of Canada, University of Toronto, Taber of Brown, his great intercollegiate rival, lowered the time to 4:12.8 two years after that.

Yusuf Nurul, the great Finn athlete, in 1923 lowered the mark to 4:10.4. Jules Ladoumègue of France, his great Olympic rival in 1921, went at a 4:09.2 clip. Jack Lovelock, the great New Zealand athlete, a captain in action now, two years later raced the mile in 4:07.8. Then, one of the greatest performers of all time, Glenn Cunningham, who conquered polo in 1934, set a mark of 4:06.8. Sidney Wooderson, bespectacled Englishman, surprise runner of the pre-war Olympic games, in 1937 shaved that one by going in 4:06.4.

Gundar Haegg, with most nations at war and athletes mostly in action, had the field to himself from 1920 on and by 1942 had managed the remarkable time of 4:04.6. Anderson a year later clipped off a full two seconds and then this year another. It took 70 years to clip 23 seconds from the record. We hate to think what the next 70 will bring. We have proved time and again that there is little except death the human frame and spirit can't conquer or stand. When peace comes, we will have a chance to see what our boys can really do. Soccer is hardly likely to be played in the Aurora park again this year, according to C.S.M. Amby Cotton. His players are being moved frequently and replacements just don't seem to come. Add to that warm weather and furloughs and you can readily see why the girls at the depot and the kids in town are carrying the sports burden. Guess most of us would rather watch the gals (pretty nifty) and the kids.

...The building of a great car...
a great industry..a mighty war plant

In 1904 when a little group of Canadian business men decided to found a company for the manufacture of automobiles, they little dreamed what an historic step they were taking. They were convinced that the motor car would one day be an important means of transportation, though most people at that time looked upon it as a rich man's plaything. But it is doubtful if they foresaw that in forty years their little plant would grow into an industry employing thousands of men, supplying cars to millions of men and women through hundreds of Ford dealers. Little did they dream that in a future war of nations, Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited would become the Empire's largest single source of military transport.

1904—Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited commenced operations in a small building formerly used as a wagon factory. Seventeen men were employed, and the cars at first were assembled from parts imported from Detroit. In the first year of operation, 117 Ford cars were produced.

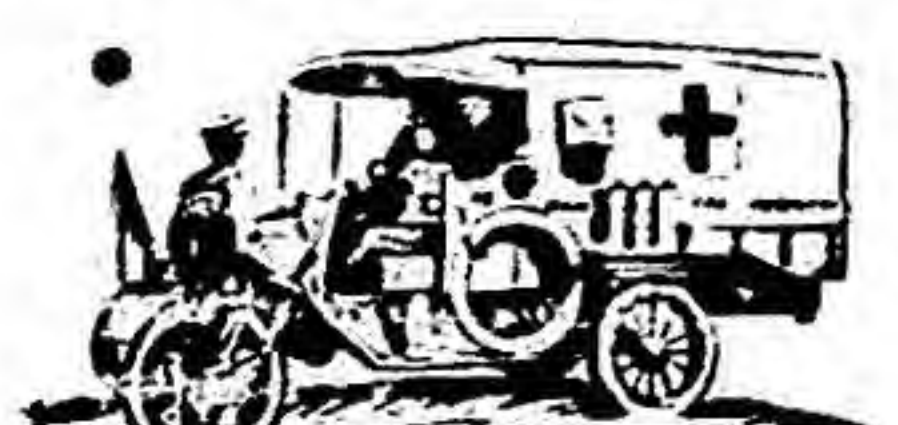

1908—After two years of exhaustive tests, the Company decided to standardize on the Model "T" Ford Car, using mass production methods. With increasing demand, the plant was expanded to ten times its former size. By 1912 the number of employees had increased to 565.

1913—Ford of Canada first started building its own engines thereby creating a new major outlet for Canadian raw materials. Since its introduction five years earlier, the Model "T" engine had already become famous for its simplicity of design and absolute dependability under all conditions.

1915—By this time there was a chain of more than 550 Ford dealers and nine Ford branches across Canada. The Company always believed it owed a debt to the public—that of providing expert service and genuine replacement parts for Ford cars as long as those cars were in operation.

1916—Plant expansion continued as demand increased. The War, 1914-1918, called for added output. In 1916-1917, production reached a new high of 50,000 units as a new branch assembly plant went into operation at Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, London and Saint John.

1927—After completely re-tooling the entire plant, Ford of Canada came out with the new Model "A". The car's modern design, power, speed and low cost operation won for it immediate acceptance. Buyers made their selection from several different models with color and upholstery options.

1932—Saw the introduction of the Ford V-8 engine. For the first time, a powerful, smooth, V-type eight-cylinder engine was made available to Canadian motorists in the popular price field. Its economy, simplicity and outstanding performance made it the talk of the automobile world.

1939—70% of all automobiles exported from Canada were built by Ford, more than half of the entire Ford output going abroad. The huge export business, started with the founding of the company was built up in every part of the British Empire with the exception of the British Isles.

1940—Ford of Canada was already producing a large volume of war equipment and heavy shipments were made to many different battlefronts. As early as 1936 the groundwork for the production of military vehicles had been laid in closest co-operation with the Department of National Defence.

1942—The last passenger car for the duration came off the assembly line, climaxed a series of manufacturing curtailments of the previous 12 months. Now, until Victory was won, the Company's huge production was to be still multiplied but strictly confined to war equipment and essential vehicles.

1943—Ford employees had increased to 15,637, double the number prior to wartime. 4,300 Ford employees had gone into the Armed Services. 15,000 blood transfusions had been given at the Ford Clinic. Employees had invested $10,000,000 in Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates.

1944—Midnight, August 17, the Company's 40th anniversary—and our 40th night war plant comes a Universal Carrier, the 27,678th of its kind, the 338,978th Military vehicle for World War II, the 1,893,162nd unit produced by Ford of Canada during its forty year history in this Great Dominion.

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD PARADES AS OFFICER

For wearing an army uniform with insignia indicating the rank of a lieutenant with overseas service and which he was not yet entitled to wear, Ronald Mackay, 169 Earl-gray Rd., Toronto, was sentenced in Newmarket magistrate's court on Friday to 30 days in jail. In passing judgment, Magistrate W.
 F. Woodliffe warned the youth, who pleaded guilty to the charge, that he was liable to one year in jail plus a severe money penalty.
 Douglas Bissell, North Gwillimbury, told his worship that he had noticed the defendant on a bus in the uniform of the Canadian army. Knowing that he was not a member of the armed forces, he immediately informed the police.

Major Herbert Charles Withum, military district 2, identified the uniform exhibited in court as being that of a lieutenant in the army.
 He stated that the youth had been discharged from the army on April 3 of the year as being medically unfit. He said that the youth had never been overseas. He was entitled to wear the uniform of a private for one month after discharge but that at the present time he had no right whatever to wear a uniform.

In his defence, Ronald Mackay pleaded that he had always had a love for the army and as a child liked to play soldier. He stated that he was 14 years of age when he enlisted, at which time he gave his age as 16. He said that he would be 17 this coming October.
 The youth's father confirmed the defendant's age as 16, having enlisted in the army at 14. He said that he had no idea that his son had the uniform and thought that he must have had it hidden somewhere other than in his home.

Magistrate Woodliffe ordered that the uniform be confiscated.
 Three motorists pleaded guilty to illegal possession of liquor in Whitchurch township. In each case a Constable Joseph R. Foote laid the information.

In a charge against Sidney Charles Elles, Sidewick, the officer stated that he searched the former's car on May 27 at Musselman's Lake and found one empty bottle and two cartons of ale. He stated that the defendant admitted ownership.

Magistrate Woodliffe fined Elles
 $20 and costs or one month in jail and ordered the beer confiscated.

Robert Henry Cody and Ellis Giam, both of Toronto, were each fined $10 and costs or one month in jail. Constable Foote stated that he searched cars at Wilcox Lake on July 29. In the car of the former he found two partly-consumed bottles of ale. In the Giam car he found seven full pint bottles and five partly-consumed bottles of ale. In each case Magistrate Woodliffe ordered that the beer be confiscated.

The following charges were laid on complaint of Provincial Constable William A. Melbourne: William Berry, Toronto, fined $9 and costs for passing another car at a time dangerous to others using the highway; Jerry Barter, Toronto, fined $20 and costs for exceeding solidated Drill Corp., fined $3 and fined $6 and costs; and John Johnson, Whitby, and Marjorie Davis,

MOUNT ALBERT BOYS
SAY THANKS TO VETS

"Just received your gift of 300 cigarettes and want to let you know how much I appreciated them," Pte. H. C. Draper writes in a letter of appreciation to the Mount Albert Veterans' Association. "They have had a long, round-about trip but I was moved an awful lot before we came over here and as you will well know things were rather upset for a while over here in France."

"We are issued with seven cigarettes a day but they don't last long when things get hot and their cigarettes can't compare with ours from home."

"I guess you have read and heard a lot about the big show. It really was wonderful and I wouldn't have missed it for the world. When we arrived here they didn't have much ready for our landing and we got a real soaking from the landing craft to the beach. It was up to our necks and I lost about 400 cigarettes so you can understand how much I am going to appreciate yours."

"Well, we aren't allowed to write very much but some day soon we will be back to tell all about it. The boys are doing a really wonderful job over here and the air force has given us some lovely shows. "There isn't much I can say except 'Thanks a lot. It is sure encouraging to know we are being remembered by the people back home.'"

"I sure will be glad when this doing is over and we get back home again," writes Spr. Bob Spenceley. "The boys down here (Italy) have sure been doing a good job and also the boys that are in on the big move as they are progressing very well," writes Pte. Mac Armstrong in a letter of appreciation. "I think it is just a matter of a few months before Jerry is through and I hope we can all get back to good old Canada."

SPORTS...

FROM WHERE WE SIT
By DEL. GISENY

The town girls of the Newmarket Ladies' Softball league, with their record of wins, are winning the applause of all who like the summer sport.

It was mentioned in our previous column that the Town pitcher and players carried much more punch in the game than the rest of the teams, words which have riled the coaches and players of the factory teams.

The industrial girls are confident that the towners can be beaten and are going to try and prove their point by selecting an all-star team to challenge the town aggregation, the game to be played in the near future.

It is our opinion that the towners are not unbeatable and if the all-stars play the ball of which they are capable they might make the going tough for the champs of the town league.

It will be the best game of the season and a large crowd is anticipated as the all-stars are confident of a win.

Bowls "Possible"

Eugene McCaffrey, a recruit of two years ago to the lawn bowling world, bowled perfect bowls for 21 ends to beat Bob Large in the semi-finals of the men's club singles on Monday evening.

Tied in the 20th end and two shots down coming home, "Peony" came through with his last bowl to tie the score at 21-21.

Gene now waits for the finals, meeting the winner of Percy King and Stanley Jones.

If McCaffrey's bowls do trick for him as in the previous game he might win the men's singles championship and the silver mug.

Places Booby Traps

Andrew Murdison and Percy King won at Agincourt Monday evening with three wins in the men's doubles tournament.

Percy won the last game with a series of well-placed booby traps protecting each end and giving Skip Murdy a real lead. These traps and Andy's leaning rolled in a seven end during the last game.

Friday night will be open night for general bowling and Globe double play-offs. Sine and Helmer play Luck and Budd in group one.

VanderVoort and Pritchard take on Bosworth and Brereton in group three.

A Scotch doubles tournament is being held at Newmarket Saturday, Aug. 19, at 2 p.m. As the club is anxious to have eight or ten pairs, please make your entry early with Andrew Murdison, phone 726, or C. F. Willis, phone 160.

Newmarket Turns Tables

Charlie VanZant's midgets wallowed Aurora kids Tuesday evening at Stuart Scott school ground to almost white-wash the boys from the south. They took the game 25-1, to make a strong come-back from the previous game with the same youngsters last Thursday evening in Aurora.

It was Newmarket's night from the start. They made three easy outs in the first and chalked five runs for themselves.

From then on every inning was a merry-go-round, with three players crossing the plate in the second, seven in the third and ten in the fourth.

The fourth inning saw highlight plays. Johnston ran miles to pick off a hard hit ball to deep left and "Talkative" Blight brought down a hard drive, jumping to make the catch. Tommy Dales finished with a strike-out.

For Aurora Gar Doolittle, centre fielder, played one of his best games of the season, making hard hits look easy and swinging the hickory like an old-timer. The Aurora boys had an off night but it came late in the game and spell finish for their club in the first year of the County Midget league.

The Newmarket kids are now waiting for the winners of the Richmond Hill-Markham series and, if they play ball like they did Tuesday evening, should have no trouble to take the series and earn the right to enter the Ontario playoffs. Play ball and it can be done.

Challenge Game

It's on! Friday evening of this week the industrial all-star ladies are challenging the Towners and are confident of whipping the all-star girls to give them their first loss of the season and take the girls down off that high horse.

We still call the Towners to take it. Be on hand. You are promised a real ball exhibition between two evenly matched teams.

Golden Girls Win

Some 400 townsfolk saw the Newmarket ladies' team in an exhibition softball game last evening, the first night of the Lions club carnival and dance.

Aurora, short its firststar pitcher, "Jimmy" McKenzie, was no match for the gold and maroon clad kids and before two innings were over Newmarket had a substantial lead and maintained it throughout the game.

Vera Dingman and Agnes Wilmot pitched good ball for Newmarket and were well supported in the field and at bat.

The Boys' Comforts club met at Mrs. Jas. Sinclair's on Wednesday. Plans are underway for another euchre.
